

GREEN ROOM NEWS SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER 2023

MS. EVELYN, MS.SAMANTHA

This month at school

For the first week of September, our weekly theme is Me & My School. For art, the kiddos will be making fingerprint art, a handprint frame, a friendship tree, and me collage. The kiddos will be gluing flowers on V-shaped paper for the letter of the week, making a pencil puzzle with the letters of their name, a name book, and matching letters for literacy. For math/ science, the kiddos will be matching specific colors to their coordinating color backpack cutout, measuring school buses, matching numbers, and using pencil-themed counting cards to practice their counting.

For the second week of September, our weekly theme is My 5 Senses! For art, the kiddos will make a texture collage, a mr. potato five senses craft, rainbow pom pom art, hand texture craft, and their my five senses puppet! For math/science, the kiddos will explore smells using spices, sort senses based on the five senses, and discover sounds using mystery tubes. For literacy, we will practice letter formation and attempt to trace the first letter of their name.

For the third week, our weekly theme is Fall (Leaves/ Trees). The kiddos will be gluing cotton swabs on a letter X cutout for the letter of the week, using leaf letters for letter matching, creating their name with a pumpkin puzzle, and trying to construct letters using pom poms. For art they will be doing apple stamping, creating an acorn plate, a pom pom leaf, and paper plate leaves. Lastly, for math kiddos will be measuring leaves, apple tree color sorting, creating a pumpkin volcano, and using pie-themed counting cards.

For the fourth week our weekly theme is Apples/Pumpkins! For art, the kiddos will do apple stamp painting, caramel apples, and an apple pie craft. For math/science, the kiddos will have an opportunity to make salt crystal pumpkins! For literacy, the kiddos will practice writing the first letter of their name using apple sauce and creating an apple name craft!
